I shall be glad to furnish you with some of my data which may need correction.

If James Randal or Rannaldolph's children went to Verona (intermarried with Douglas) as a desc. tells me it must be that the name has been shortened to Reynolds, Rennels, Rannels, Rundle, Rannels, perhaps Ramsden, Ramsdill, Renny or Rannic! And Rencil is given in one case.

I think the Ball family came from Jacob, of the Eastern Is. I was born in Compton. Que. and I have a book who's who in the E.T. which gives some Ball data. I think Boyle comes from Dubois.

Lanson or Alanson is a Randal name.

There was a Silas Reynolds of the Bay of Conception line. I traced one desc. in Toronto who gave me quite a little. I copied some wills while in Kingston and remember 'Zara'.

I traced back the Jonathan Randal family of Kingston quite far.

My Dear Sir:
I shall appreciate it very much if you will please be kind enough to at least try and give me just as much information as you possibly can about my great-great-great grandfather David Randall, who was an early settler of Bath. What data I have about him I have outlined on a separate sheet

Dear Dr. Burleigh: Received your letter of July 30, yesterday morning. I am very grateful to you for your long letter. It has been some time since I have received such a nice letter.

I have been corresponding with Mrs. Prins since July 11, 1933, as far as I know she is not a relative of mine. She seems to think that my family name was originally spelt Randolph, but I don't think so. In records it has been spelt in several ways, but I think that it always has been Randall.

I thank you very much for the correct data on David Randall of Bath.

I have searched through the only history of Washington Co. N. Y. that the Rochester Public Library has but failed to find any mention of the name of Randall or Randolph.
I have searched through the history of Nunda Springs Co. N. Y. and failed to find any mention of the name of Howe. But I am going to get in touch with the library in Nunda and see if I can't find some member of the Howe family who still might be living there. I shall do my very best to help you if possible.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a single page of aged paper. The text appears to be a list or series of entries, possibly names or dates, but is too faded to transcribe accurately.]

The information that you sent me from the Furber Co. history for 1857 was of much interest to me.

On a separate sheet I shall ask you some definite questions about the Randalls. Even the least bit of information about any Randalls shall be of great interest to me.

Are you interested in any Buckingham families of N. J. State?
Please let me know.

Any information that you can give me about my Randall ancestors shall be greatly appreciated by me.

Yours truly

Howard Randall N. C. F.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Enclosed for you will find a copy of the letter that I had written to the Register of Argyll, N.Y. & the Washington Co. N.Y. Hist. Soc. regarding you James & Anna Randolph of Argyll Town, Washington Co. N.Y. Census of 1790.

Dr. Burleigh I have been trying to help you, but I just don't seem to get anyplace. Your kindness to me has been greatly appreciated.

I am still waiting for a reply from the State Library at Albany, N.Y. regarding (over)

James & Anna Randolph Fargyle.
Perhaps they will have some data.
Just as soon as I get a letter I shall forward it to you at once.

I wrote to the Methodist & English Churches in Bath several weeks ago, to see if they might have the death records of my David Randall whom I presume died before 1841. as yet I have not heard from them. it hard to get ministers to do anything without paying them.

The village of Randolph, Knice Co. Ont. was named after three bros. Royal, Oscar & John Randolph after the year 1832. Do you know anything about these brothers?

Very truly yours
Howard Randall

(1)
My David Randall, settled 1790, Bath, Ont. had a son Benj. of Loughborough.
Benj. Randall, m. Lydia Keller, and had the following children - John, James, Sarah, Elij. Wm., Benj., David, and Hannah

I have perceived that some members of the Lake family used to call my great-great grandmother, Lydia Keller Randall, aunt Lydia.

Elizabeth Randall Lloyd, dau. of Benj. & Lydia Keller Randall, named her ^{eldest} daughter after Jerusha Lake.

Jerusha Lake's daughter Melissa Lake, age 86, lives at Inverary, Frontenac Co.

I am anxious to find out how the Lakes are related to the Randalls. Mrs. Lewis said that she thought Apphia Randolph married the second time a Lake.

Dear Dr. Burleigh

Be not amazed at this quick answer. I have been trying to copy the data I had for you for a month and now it is by my side—at least all I can find. I went through the cards-- supposed ^{in one sense} to be private-- in a great hurry and made short notes, now rather hard to decipher in some cases. My daughter has had an operation ~~for~~ for appendicitis and I have been trying to get MS off of my various books, so you will understand that I had to put the things by in which I was much interested. I got Josiah Cass' ancestry ^{from a ~~manuscript~~ cor.} but when I have time I want to go into the matter with you as I think there must be confusion between Elijah and Elihu-- as the former is given; ^{in history of A.} I have also some interesting Hawley material

The name of Runions may possibly be confused with Reynolds or Randal as B. Runions is given in Highland regt. where B. Reynolds is supposed to have been-- more of this anon.

I will write to young Howard in Rochester and tell him what you said

Argyle

Am much interested in James Randolph of Washington N.Y --had noticed it before in the census -- will put a query in Transcript when I can get time

I will send my Abraham, Benj. Matthew and Moses Randal or Randolph data in compact form to you- Kitley and Yonge vicinity-- as soon as I can manage it. Any names of Randal, dolph, dale, dil, Ranna, Reynolds -nalds-~~als~~ Runnels Rundle, Rannold are all grist for my mill; I would like much to know why the Quebec line of Mark Randal had ^{Johnathan} Nathan Burley in its names; he was a half brother of one of them who appears in a chart I made. I have no time to keep files of correspondence so I may repeat. ^(over)

Yours gratefully
O Randal Livesey

Shall be glad if any data in the cards you speak of

Dear Mr. Burleigh

After our long silence have you any news of common interest.
Today I found the will of William Randolph, which I think I saw before in Kingston, and which you probably have.
But in this document William's mother is written down very plainly 'Alice', not 'Olivia'. Which is right? Had you anything beside the will to make you think the name was Olivia? Please let me know soon.

There is also a James Randall d. 1869.

I found quite a number of Randolphe + Randall names in wills 1861 - 1890
These include a
James Randolphe +
Pelle Randall

Do you think your James, d. 1870? I imagine Peter would be of. Footnote. The cost is 50 cents a will. I plunged in without thinking I might find something new. You know his real location and surname? His son - did you give me the latter's descendants? He lived on part of his land, RR 11 in 6th Con.
Portland Co.

H. Snyder + Robert
Black were witnesses of the will. July 17, 1849

He was very sick & weak of body but of perfect mind & memory & evidently a very good Christian

Was I as bad

now you did not know that the Randolph clan

It can all be proved in learned fashion, ^{anyway} that I did think was that perhaps you did not take into consideration the variants in your own line - the Reynolds. For instance, that might give clues: and you seemed surprised that Randal + Randolph in Ontario might be the same, whereas in land grants they are often given 'Randall' alias Randolph, but ^{Edessa evidently} used ^{both families} Howard R. has a queer streak of suspiciousness for a long time he was wary of me. But he has been sorry for such ill-founded feelings he has manfully confessed!

I assure you that I never dreamt what I wrote would be taken as reproach by one who has been a serious student, as you have been. Our common frail ancestry, like you, I would not shy at our doors, if they insisted on making an appearance in my life! I have the openest mind possible on blacksmiths, who seem to come in quite often. So I hope this 'amende honorable' to a Randolph will be forgiven by a Randall.

P.S. Anyway, it brought a good letter! I am deep now in ^{Florida} oranges ~~in the~~ R.D. of my own line - which has been static for a long time. J.R.L.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

The shock was a very pleasant one - thank you!

You say "the name has always been Randolph with no hint of Randall" - but, my dear doctor, you could not say that if you looked in some ^{deeds in Brockville} ~~archives~~ and es-pecially in Hist of Lunenburg where Benj Randolph is given as in R.R.N.Y. This man was afterwards a settler

Benj Randolph 1790

And as, I expect, Howard's ancestors, and may be allied to your group. Yes, many a proud Randolph has had to admit that the upstart Randalls were perhaps Dr. R's to begin with! It's a nasty govt, but it has become for old books say so.

It seems odd that one can't get further in the case of David of Hapane. I found no deed in Hapane in 1841 showing that Benj of L'borough was eldest son and heir. - I have an idea that Howard's line goes back to William of Scituate. Mrs. a job of Rochester man from John, for we get John and David, and the Washington records said that the Benj ^{Landolph} who came to Elders had been on the Oliver Cromwell, built Saybrook Conn. and was son of John of Fairfield. Come time we are working to find him but he may be under Bundell (another form of his name) - McKipton Randall line certainly had relatives in Elders. Their names have James, John, William Moses, David, Benjamin

The Brockville record says Ben. Jr, William and Abraham

Lately I have had some information re Randolphs that may give you a new clue.
In the University Library

I found some D. A. R. names. Incidentally the claim about Beef Reynolds ^{as a Loyalist} is all wrong because his deeds in Rev war are really those of another man - & the A. R. is very much exercised. "further proof on these names needed" etc. Well, I found a Beef Randolph otherwise given as Fitz R. of the New Jersey line who was a fine boy. I got in touch with a descendant.

You know Howard's Randall's line has a Moses - ~~he~~^{one} was called Randolph or Randal in making road from Perth to Kingston about 1801.
He was Moses, Jr -
probably son of Benj.
Benj sr & Moses Sr were

Dear Dr Burleigh:

Thank you for yours of recent date about Mary Reynolds.

I have been living an interesting life in Halifax and in Auburn N.S., and in Athens, Ont.

Some of the facts gleaned in that place and reports from Delta, Charleston etc certainly seem to show that the Randall or Randolph line from Kingston (which may be yours) was there & Wm. Marshall Randall of K. who recently died, told me his relatives were in these two places (W. & A.) - Abel Stevens was a Stevens settler & buried in Delta & I found traces of Case and wife both my names searched for & there was an Elizabeth Randle in Athens vicinity in 1826 & a Randal still living there. but I did not get into touch with him.

John Case of St Philippe d'Argenteuil or Hill Case lived. I think a desc. of Josiah Case lived. I think a desc. of Daniel of Chatham -

The Rausdell line from a connection - dent is given because name is given Randall & so sometimes Reynolds.

Sincerely

(W.S.) J. Randal Livesay

known as Randolph

Pennellia and James Case were in Athens. Also Martha & Philip King.

Benj. Case from a name found.

(Benj. Brown was b. 1771)

(am so glad you were 'in the mood')

I am sending a spare copy of the Transcript; the chief necessity seems to be stamps U.S. ; I get the paper and will watch for your enquiries and any answers, if you will send them. You might include the James Randolph, eh? (just read the notes)

A Freeman line in E.T. was allied to Ellisons ((Ellison)) allied to Randalls; — also Reynolds and Freeman in Waterdown Ont.

I will try to remember your interest in John of Saratoga. further

If you have anything on Giles Turleigh line wd. like it. Did they live near Bolton, Que. or Dunham?

I know about Mark Randal--Somersworth N.H. -- + Bolton Que.

I remember one Burley wedding vaguely in that Mark line.

Notes on Daniel Burleigh and on Love Randall Matthews new to me-- very interesting; Lyndon Vt. is where some Case families lived.

I think George and Gilbert Randles are of your line Am --also interested in Geo Rannels of Pittsburg 1865; ditto George of Portland--can you locate desc. of Sydney Randolph?
Benj Rundle of Torrington must be Howard's Benjamin.
Rundle
Ira R of L. particularly interesting--note also the Ira Reynolds of Gro tp

The Harrowsmith Randall line I have never been able to locate. I know something of Belleville dist.

Brusdale
The Shannonville line is that of Wm of Scituate Mass -- have had some info re Norham Reynolds (1904 list) Bloomfield Rundles (Cornwall, Emerseas) --Port Hope Randalls go back to a good old age (not quite clear) —

Will write more to you about others later; Ambrose Runnels known also as Reynolds was s. of George--think of same line as James Randolph

"Gleaner George"

*The Shibley - Reynolds line is that of Rev. John

Dear Dr. Burleigh:-

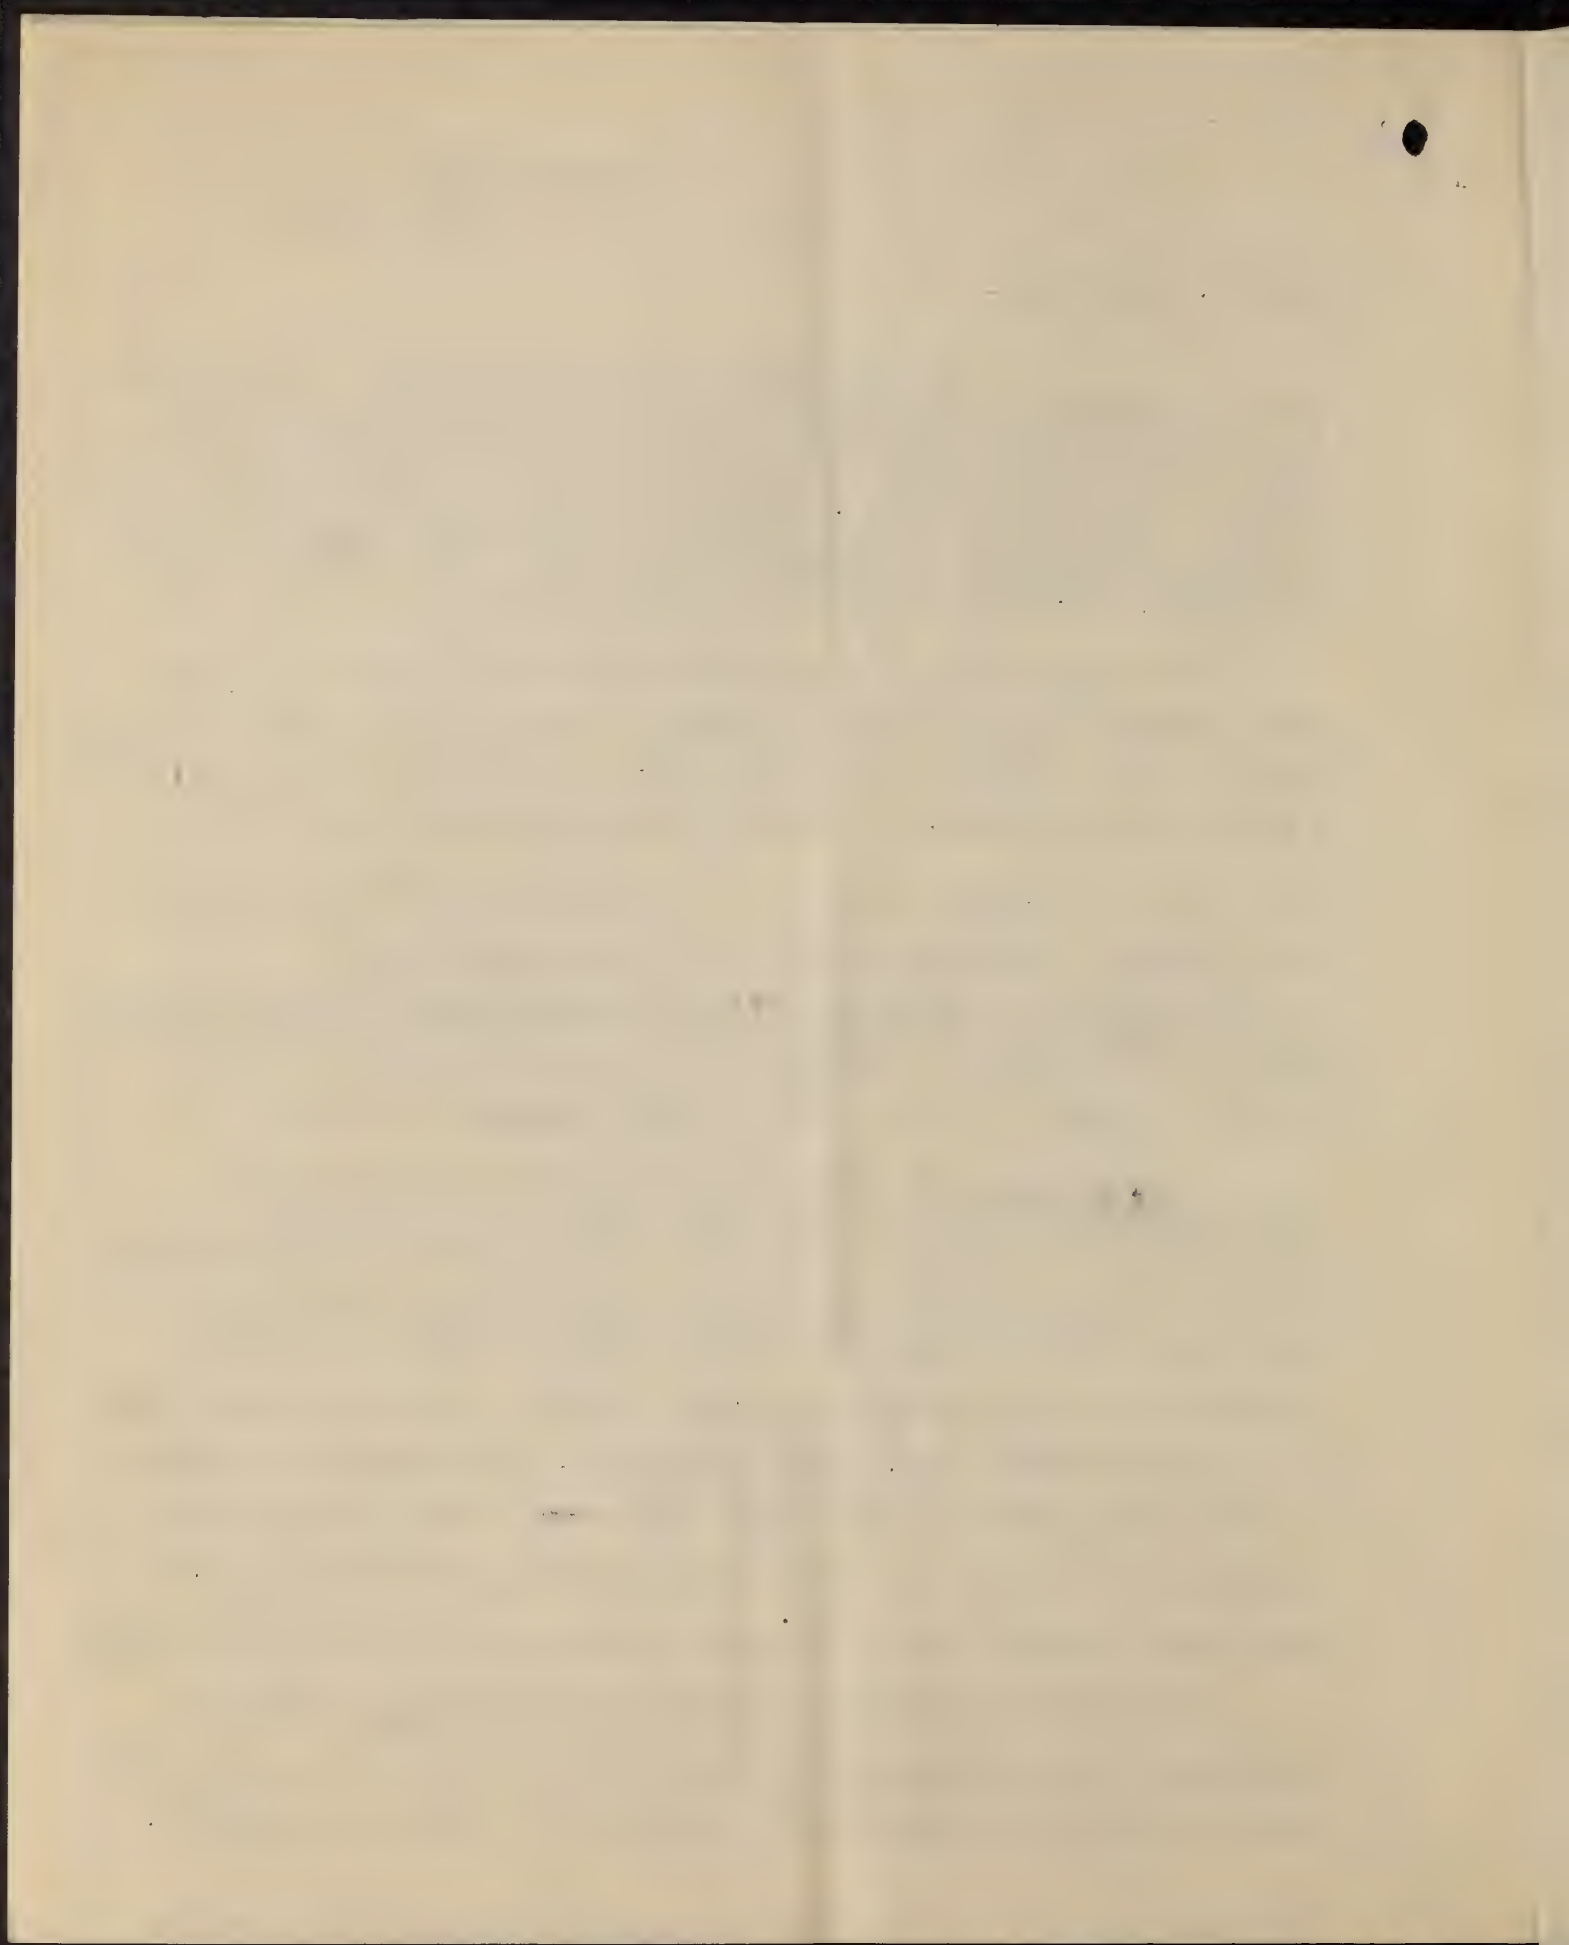

I do appreciate your 'good measure' after your long silence--you more than make up when you do get writing. The trouble is that so many of my notes which I scribbled down just on the chance that they might be useful were put aside when you did not seem interested so I may never be able to give you any references; I was working at the highest speed and could not take time to more than jot down a few names outside my Randal, Reynolds, Rundle and Case notes.

To begin with your letter of June 6--I think you will find that in the end you will have to consider the ~~all~~ corrupted names often starting from Randolph. I have had to do this, which I did not do at first. I still get vehement protests from the Case-Cass lines, yet, there is no doubt among genealogists that the name was the same and was used indiscriminately.

The names of -- Anne-as w. of James Randolph I did not find in the index of cards in Kingston, but by looking over the cards myself I was glad to discover it; the bap. of Apphia and Sarah Anne may be on the index; anyway names are there.

I did not copy from the Haldimand papers in Ottawa but from ~~books~~ ^{memoirs} shown me. Cal Hamilton is an old dragon; pompous and inefficient, to my mind; Major Bailey who has charge of I812 and on is most courteous and obliging. Hamilton won't help at all except in the most official way; it may well be that in my perforce hurried copying I got the wrong date and it may have been Ind. Co of Loyalists. Certainly in London I found Benj Reynolds with Capt Teake--~~or~~ I have exact notes somewhere; I think the Balls were probably associated with above man, whether he is Rannold, Reynolds or Randal or Randolph.

The Randolph family of Kingston is worked out back of Jonathan-- the railway-man and inn keeper; ^{Randolph Holt-} but it may have been that in my earlier searches I jumped to the conclusion that

~~was~~ Jonathan's father, the William who ~~xxxxxx~~ b 1800 rear of Bastard was the same man as your ancestor. It meant a lot of hunting among various descs, to find out up to that point. I am sure now that they did not give me 'Olive Powell' which I had found in W's will in Kingston.

It does seem to me that you could find a clue with descs, of Dr. Henry Taylor, and then I could write to Lillian Randolph again

Re Lydia R. ^{Richard} John Burley ; I think these are in the Reed cards in Toronto Archives - I have still to see Mr.
R. about these cards-- they are his property - Will be ~~am~~ glad to know about cem. at Verona when you get there.

It seems to me that the ref. to Ben^y and Wm Reynolds being in first settlement was given me by Howard Randall from something he had found-- knowing that I was interested. Of course if they were the original ^{Randal} names the item might be correct. When I know more will send you data.

Can't say definitely whether Mendel and Randal in Eng. are the same fam. but in books they are often given in brackets. I note Napanee Job etc.

Can you tell me if George Reynolds of Kitley who in 1878 owned lot 4 7th con is a Randal, known as Rennels and Rannels? I have seen his will; wife was Jane-- a Mary Ann ment.-- he had John, William and Frances ~~xxxx~~ Bates (^{Wm Bates}) John had John Taylor Reynolds ; William had a son George; Loftus Johnston was a witness. Note that Abr. Randol had lot 4 8th con. of Yonge in 1801 A John Rennie of Yonge tp was married in 1831

It was Mark Randall I was writing of in would like to confirm.

I wondered, in your case, if Jonathan or Nathan Burleigh, said to be a halfbrother of the

had a Burleigh mother.
Probably it was so - a dau. of Nathaniel. I should judge.

I find that one Randall of Scituate, Mass and his son Wm (1647?) are really the same family tho' son was known as Rundle. Patient investigations of one of my correspondents in Buffalo gave me this - the Manhattan is really a discovery.

up to this now I have never found a geologist to admit it, except by a 'possibly'. This means each of these, from Stanford records showed also that the Randall no two can were called but a no fact that you may find your father to be a Randall - at least that point has to be considered. (I should be copying out ^{as much} as you

Dear Dr Burleigh

Now that our simulated pages are over we can't leave so much free, but at any rate on my part I feel very grateful to you for your time spent in ~~your last~~ ^{your last} letter & I spent the evening comparing it with my notes and found you had given me some valuable hints.
But 'the brat' got ahead of you with Genl. Randolph of Portland Co! I know that this is important, as given me some years ago by the amateur researcher who now is in the American Army.
He was a very well-mannered boy and extraordinarily keen, but his manners of approach was a bit brash & however, he was only 19 when he first demanded my credentials as a Randall before giving out any information.
You did remind me of Col. Randolph of Chicago at first! You see, I had letters from so many on his subject before we met and Daniel Randall of Baltimore was really an authority on the subject of the F. Randolph Randall aspect. He is dead now, to my sorrow.
His letters are somewhere in the library dept. Now 8 years to be reunited. (Selling paper, as over)

There was a letter from Portland
but I never had time to write it.

I would agree

I had seen the Randal Ruddle Rannald, Rurnalds, Ruland, Rrandal Rempolds mix-up in registers which could be proved by alliances to be something else. - Genealogists had told me some years ago that it was quite impossible for a Randal to be written as Rempold for instance whereas I had ~~known~~ ^{known} the contrary!
But when a good old every-day contractor in Kingston told me that his grandfather ¹⁸²⁶ James had told him his name was really R. Randolph and that they had relatives in Idaho where they had visited as a child, then I took the straw & consciousness!

I have been busy getting Baseline thinks Baseline and Aseline different branches altogether, but I'm not so sure.

 He is not returning a protest. I go by the way, names for pronounced. For instance in "Transactions" of an E. T. publication one woman speaks of Reynolds and says "but it's always called Reynolds here" - I was told to visit the same person - "Reynolds"

Dear Dr. Burley; Well, if I am prolific-- and I don't deny the soft impeachment-- you certainly are not! Yet I have your letter to Hartford Times. My enquiry being really meant to help you out first of all and incidentally myself. I just know your Randolphs and my Randalls are the same!

I do wish you would look up that Mallory end. With Elizabeth dau of James looking you in the face and marrying Daniel of Vt. of the many Mallory's, if I remember right, I don't see why you don't follow up that clue. After all it is your James. And I furnished you with Lillian and you never got after her. Tut, tut! And I actually gave you a Bath Randall and now I even forget the name for your future study... of course I carry far too much in my head and probably get it all wrong.

The Hartford Times-- and I did n't know that you took it-- changed my pen-name of CANADA suddenly and wished L.C. on me. It is annoying to have these changes. I have done several times, the same as you did with various correspondents-- finding them old stand-bys if not exactly prolific. Mostly they treat me with a stony silence.

Did you ever try that Col Randolph in Chicago who got out a book on the name? I quite often see Fitz R names asked for. There is a Benjamin I want in Fishkill and the maddening thing is that Moses comes into the name and that Abraham left a will in Canada in 1824. But does that help me when I don't know where that same Abraham lived? Ottawa has a record of Abraham Randolph or Randall from Half Moon, in Ascot tp in 1792 or 1795, I forget which.

I have all the Ottawa names, which include Ranna and some that I found in tax-lists. A Matthew can't have lived far from your ancestor around 1810, but he seems to disappear entirely. We do get Moses and David and Benjamin and James in Howard Randall's ~~xxxx~~ line. I don't say my Randalls are yours, but I think Howard's are and you might try David of Wapanee who had this Benjamin as eldest son and probably the Loyalist as brother, your James toddling along somewhere in the rear. Well, I am getting frivolous so must stop.

Sincerely,

G. R. Liveray

Dear Mr. Burleigh:

My second pacifying and mollified letter has no doubt reached you by now — and as I am in a royal rage at present I take pen in hand, as you suggest. I fear it is a poor weapon. For you have all the 'dope' at your finger's ends. In my scrap-book I have your data neatly recorded, but as it is amplified now and then by your ^{ahem!} researches, I inscribe a little more — and forget to look at it when I write. I don't believe you ever answered the letter in which I told you I had seen Wm. Kandolph's will in Norout and for some reason 'Olive' seemed written down as 'Alice'. Probably does it have any significance and is like what I might have done by writing 'Mallory' x Gar be it from me to take away your darling 'Walker' (my ~~best~~ record reads)

Dear Mr. Burleigh:

Thank you very much for thinking of my Randall interest. I had talked with that Mr.
William, ^{grand-son} of Benjamin, several times and am sorry to hear of his death.
He was of the opinion that his name was originally 'Randolph' since James of Battersea, his father, had told him so.
Howard Randall of Rochester, N.Y., the inde-fatigable genealogist, is also of this line. He discovered that Benjamin came to Adessa, but and I discovered he was the son of a David Randolph or Randall, of Exeter and Haverhill. I think myself we will sometime find that family allied with yours.

The D. R. A. do not seem to have a record of your James — or at least any James who would fit in as the Rev. was on that side. I agree with you that James Randall of Grant of 1807 is out of the picture.

In the land book lists and some cards (private property) I found notes that may or may not be known to you.

I will send these a little later, on the chance.
Yours sincerely
